(Attn: Premotions and Separations Division)

1. With reference to message, APPMP 111158, 29 November 1957, it has some to my attention that will have over 28 "total years of service" as defined in the Reserve Officers Personnel Act of 1954 by 30 June 1959.

STAT

Chief, Military Personnel Division of this Agency and as Commander, the duties of these offices in a commandable manner. He has had additional responsibilities in connection with a highly sensitive project of great national importance. In his current assignment he has acquired skills and perfected techniques of handling unusual and unconventional procedures which should submana his value to the Air Force in future assignments.

fine apphilities in the fields of personnel and administration, has smellent qualities of leadership and the ability to conduct and express himself well in conferences and in linious activities. He is well qualified for promotion and has a high potential value for continued service.

STAT

3. I feel strongly that the retention of this officer on active duty would be in the best interests of the United States Air Force.
